What makes Stepping Stone Acting “Shooting Stars” different?

- Our Proprietary Curriculum: This curriculum highlights “character” building exercises throughout the modules. Each week will focus on a specific character/behavior, with the fun acting class emphasizing this behavior.
- Our Philosophy: We not only teach children how to act, be creative and use their imagination, but how to develop their “character” at the same time -- this is priceless!
- Our Weekly Lessons: Lessons are built around teaching all aspects of acting. The “Shooting Stars” program is unique in that it not only focuses on stage acting, it also teaches aspects of film and TV acting, something that can be quite different from acting on stage. We do it all!
- The Experience: We want each and every student to have the experience to grow, shine their talents, build their character and have fun. For us, it’s not just about the learning...it’s always about the experience!

We look forward to providing a great after school option for those children that want to learn more about acting, while learning life skills and building “character” (without even knowing it)!
