

Lisa Harkness M.Ed. CCC/SLP
Biography

Mrs. Harkness is a licensed and ASHA certified Speech Language Pathologist (SLP). She has specialized in pediatric speech therapy and has worked with children in the areas of early intervention, speech, language, fluency, voice, hearing, augmentative communication, oral motor, and swallowing difficulties for over 20 years. She received her bachelor's degree from Valdosta State University and her master's degree from the University of Georgia both in Communicative Sciences and Disorders. She has worked for the St. John's County School District as a Speech and Language Pathologist since February 2011. Prior to her employment with St. John's County, Mrs. Harkness worked in the pediatric hospital and private clinic settings with children ages birth to 21.

Mrs. Harkness was raised in Jacksonville, FL. She likes to read, travel, watch football, and spend time with family and friends. She lives in St. John's County with her husband, Ted, their daughter, Rebecca, and golden doodle, Honey.