

Holly Nover Bio:

Mrs. Nover is a licensed and certified Speech Language Pathologist (SLP). This is her 9th year as a SLP. Mrs. Nover has worked with many different age groups having speech, language, fluency, voice, hearing, and swallowing difficulties. She went to college in Orlando, FL at the University of Central Florida (Go Knights!) for both her bachelor and master degree's in Communicative Disorders. Mrs. Nover was elected to the American Speech and Hearing Association's (ASHA) Special Interest Group 4 for Fluency and Fluency Disorders Coordinating Committee. She was also awarded Clinician of the Year 2010 by the Jacksonville Area Speech Pathology Association (JASPA).

Mrs. Nover was born and raised in St. Augustine, FL. She likes to read, travel, fish, go to the beach, watch baseball, spend time with friends and family, advocate for individuals who stutter, and volunteer her time to the National Stuttering Association (www.westutter.com). Mrs. Nover especially enjoys spending time with her husband, Phil, their young son, Colton, and two labrador retrievers, Hudson and Charley.
